

House Resolution No. 75

Whereas, Frank Schembre has attained considerable distinction as the business manager for Cement Masons Union - Local 527, of which he has been a member for forty-six years; and

Whereas, Frank Schembre will enhance his already stellar record of achievement on January 17, 2004, when he receives Man of the Year recognition from the Building and Construction Trades Council; and

Whereas, from 1957 to 1994 Frank Schembre developed and maintained an exceptional reputation as a worker on such impressive projects as Busch Stadium, the Edward Jones Dome, Savvis Center, the original Monsanto complex in Creve Coeur, and the Climatron in the Missouri Botanical Garden; and

Whereas, in 1994 Frank Schembre began two terms as a business representative with Local 527, after which service he was elected to the business manager position that he has held since 2000 for the betterment of the health and life benefits of his more than 1,000 colleagues and the overall strengthening of the organization's financial assets; and

Whereas, Frank Schembre has also directed his time and energy toward the St. Louis Airport Commission, as a trustee of the St. Louis Building and Construction Trades, on committees for the Plasters and Cement Masons Missouri Conference, and with the St. Louis Association, St. Louis Building Trades Council, and St. Louis chapter of UNICO; and

Whereas, an Army veteran who coaches and mentors young athletes, Frank Schembre is justifiably proud to be known as the loving husband of Barbara, father of Michele Schembre and Angela Jung, father-in-law of David Jung, and the grandfather of Jack, Sam, and Nick Jung:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Frank Schembre as Man of the Year by the Building and Construction Trades Council and to convey to him heartiest best wishes for continued success; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Frank Schembre of Cement Masons Union - Local 527.
